Current information

Prevas develops integration between business systems and Prevas GCM

Prevas is currently working on several projects where we develop integration of trade item information between our customers' business systems and Prevas GCM both for the Swedish, Danish and Finish Markets.

Several customers already send trade item information to receivers at the Danish market and in February 2019 it is also possible to send to the Finnish market.

We have long experience working with integration between different systems as well as being responsible for operation and support during the systems lifecycle.
